

7.5 Alterations. Except as otherwise permitted by these Bylaws or the Declaration, no Owner shall make or allow any structural alterations in or to any of his or her Units, or make or allow any change to the Common Elements (including, without limitation, adding or altering landscaping in planter boxes adjoining an Owner's Unit), or maintain, decorate, alter, paint or repair any part of the Common Elements or allow others to do so, without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consider the granting of such consent only after the Owner shall submit a complete set of architectural, mechanical, electrical or other relevant plans and specifications, which submission shall be reviewed by such architects and engineers as the Board of Directors shall deem appropriate. The Board shall provide a copy of such submission materials to the Declarant upon receipt. Whether or not such consent is granted, the Owner shall pay, upon demand and in advance, if so required by the Board of Directors, for such professional review. During the course of construction and after completion of same, the Board of Directors may cause its professional advisors to inspect the work to ensure that it is performed in compliance with the approved plans. The costs of such inspection(s) shall be paid by the Owner to the Board of Directors, upon demand. The Board shall provide reasonable advance notice to Declarant of its inspection to Declarant and Declarant or its contractors or agents may, but shall not be obligated to, inspect the work concurrently with the Board's professional advisors. Prior to commencement of construction, the Owner shall provide the Board of Directors with copies of all relevant building permits and evidence of due compliance with any other requirements of government bodies having jurisdiction regarding such work. Except as otherwise permitted by Section 7.16, no signage or graffiti visible from the exterior of a Unit, window display, window attachment, or lighting directed from a Unit to its exterior shall be permitted without the prior written approval of the Board of Directors; provided that this sentence shall not apply to draperies, blinds, and similar window coverings. An Owner may have removed by the Association, at such Owner's expense, a part of the partition wall separating contiguous Primary Units owned by an Owner provided that (i) such removal shall not interfere with any structural support elements or loadbearing partitions or columns or with any pipes, wires, cables, conduits or ducts or other mechanical systems and (ii) such Owner agrees in writing to have the Association restore such wall at such Owner's expense in the event that the ownership of the Units is subsequently divided. Before proceeding with any approved alterations or improvements, the Owner shall, if the Board of Directors so requires, provide to the Association, at the expense of the Owner, a performance bond and a labor and materials bond, issued by a surety satisfactory to the Board of Directors, each in the amount of at least 125 percent of the estimated cost of such alterations or improvements or such other security as shall be satisfactory to the Association.

8.3 Additions, Alterations, or Improvements. Except as otherwise permitted by the Declaration or these Bylaws, an Owner shall not, without first obtaining the written consent of the Board of Directors (if so required by Section 7.5) and satisfying the other requirements provided for in Section 7.5, as applicable, make or permit to be made any structural alteration, improvement, or addition in or to his or her Unit or Units, or in or to the exterior of any building forming part of the Condominium or any Common Element. An Owner shall make no repair or alteration or perform any other work on his or her Unit or Units that would jeopardize the soundness or safety of the Condominium, or reduce the value thereof or impair any easement or other right, unless the written consent of all Owners affected is also obtained. Other than as permitted by the Declaration or these Bylaws, an Owner shall not modify, alter, add to, paint or decorate any portion of the exterior of any building forming part of the Condominium or any Common Element without first obtaining the written consent of the Board of Directors and satisfying the other requirements of Section 7.5 and the Act. In order to prevent damage to the structural integrity of any building forming part of the Condominium, in no event may any Owner, the Association, the Board of Directors or any other entity or any agents, employees, permittees, or licensees of the foregoing, drill, bore, or cut any holes into any floor or ceiling of the Condominium more than 3/4" in depth, and the Board of Directors shall not consent to any such actions unless engineering studies confirm to the Board in the Board's sole discretion that such drilling, boring or cutting shall not compromise the structural integrity of the Condominium.
